Love

Love is such a divine feeling,
The oldest feeling that brought
The first man and woman together
It turns itself into the newest feeling
Every time it blows its magic Into tired souls.

Some would say

Love is also ephemeral lunacy
Yet they always feel ecstatic...

To be in love

For love is such a fascinating union
Of tender hearts

“True love never dies!”

That's what people say...
