

CONTRIBUTORS

Dr. Kang Wang, (Ph.D.), in Buddhist Studies from the University of Kelaniya, Sri Lanka, and M.A. in Management from Jinan University, China, and M.A. in Economics from Shenzhen University, China. Currently, Dr. Kang Wang is employed at Guangxiao Temple in Guangzhou, China, where he conducts research and translation in the field of Buddhist studies. His primary area of interest is the Abhidhamma and Yogācāra teachings of Buddhism. Dr. Kang Wang has contributed to the translation of several works, including Early Buddhist Teachings and the Sixth Patriarchal Sutra.

Rev. Sandamadulle Sumanasara (MA) Lecturer and Head of the Department of Chinese in ICBN Campus and President of Chinese Language and Cultural Center. He holds Royal Pandit (O.S.S), (BA Hon. Chinese language and literature), Beijing Language and Culture University, China, Postgraduate (MA Buddhist studies), University of Kelaniya. (MA Chinese philosophy), Department of philosophy (zhuhai), Sun yat-sen University.

Ms. Pallabi Bagchi, (cond. Ph.D.), is a research scholar pursuing her Ph.D. in the Department of Archaeology and Ancient History of the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. She has been teaching in the same department for three years as a temporary Faculty. She was awarded a Junior Scholar Fellowship (JRF) from the Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR), New Delhi. She has completed her bachelor's and master's degree in history, from the Jadavpur University, Kolkata. Her areas of interest include Buddhist Art and Iconography, Art History, Religion and Society, Gender Studies, Trade and Exchange of Ideas, and Historical Archaeology in India and Southeast Asia.

Prof. Bhikkhu Mihita, (Ph.D.) is the former Suwanda H. J. Sugunasiri, a lifelong Buddhist practitioner, getting ordained at age 83. He is a US Fulbright Scholar, with several degrees: BA (London); MA (Philadelphia); MEd, MA, PhD (Toronto). A Master's thesis was completed at Vidyalankara. A Canadian Buddhist Scholar, he is an Adjunct Professor, at Trinity Divinity, University of Toronto, and a Professor, at Nalanda College of Buddhist Studies, Toronto of which he is the Founder. He is also Founder, & Editor Emeritus, Canadian Journal of Buddhist Studies. A multi-disciplinologist (as characterized in Canadian Who's Who), he now considers himself a CRINTFREETH – Creative Interdisciplinary Free Thinker. Author of several books, among them are:

Arahant Mahinda as Redactor of the Buddha puja in Sinhala Buddhism;

Dhamma Aboard Evolution: a Canonical Study of the Agganna Sutta in Relation to Science;

Triune Mind Triune Brain: Map of the Mind through the Eyes of Buddhianscience and Westernscience;

You're What You Sense - A Buddhianscientific Dialogue on Minbody.

He is the pioneer in Canadian Buddhism, holding the first North American Pan-Buddhist Vesak (1981), bringing together world Buddhism under one umbrella. Getting ordained in Cuba, he was also to introduce Theravada Buddhism to the island (2018).

Dr. Ven. Polgolle Kusaladhamma, (PhD), Senior Lecturer and Head of the Department of Pali and Buddhist Studies, SIBA Campus, Pallakale. Candidate of MPhil in the University of Peradeniya, Completed MA in Buddhist Studies in the University of Kelaniya, Earned Post graduate Diploma in Education (PGDE) from Open University of Sri Lanka, holds BA Hons in Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy/MCU and Royal Pandit Degree from Oriental Studies Society Sri Lanka.

Venerable Wanjow Marma (MA) holds a Bachelor's degree in Buddhist Leadership in Buddhist Studies from Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA) and a Master's degree in Buddhist Studies from Mahachulalongkornrajavidyalaya University Thailand. Currently, he serves as a lecturer at SIBA campus, where he shares his extensive knowledge and passion for Buddhist teachings with students. With a strong academic background and commitment to Buddhist education, Venerable Wanjow Marma is dedicated to fostering understanding and practice of Buddhist principles in contemporary society.

Mrs. T. D. Rathnayake, (MA), is holds a BA degree with first-class honors, achieving a GPA of 3.53 (out of 4.00) in 2013 at SIBA Campus, Sri Lanka. Following graduation, She was appointed as a Teaching and Research Assistant in the Department of Buddhist Studies at the Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy, where she completed her undergraduate studies. She has completed an MA in Buddhist Studies from the SIBA Campus, submitting a thesis titled "Adaptability of Buddhist Teaching on Marriage Counseling." I have published several works, including abstracts and manuscripts, in various international conference proceedings. Notable among these are:

"Application of Buddhist Teaching on Pre-Marriage Counseling: Principles of a Happy Married Life" (2019)

"Application of Right Speech (Sammāvācā) on Marriage Counseling" (2018)

"Buddhist Response to Environmental Protection" (2014)

Currently, she has worked as a Development Officer at the Regional Director of Health Services office in the Nuwara Eliya District, Sri Lanka, since 2019.

Mr. R. P. C. H. Perera (MA) is a lecturer in Philosophy and Psychology attached to the Department of Philosophy and Psychology at the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka. He completed his Bachelor's degree in philosophy with 1stClass

Honours at the University of Peradeniya and his Master's at PGIHS, University of Peradeniya. He obtained a Scholarship from Hokkaido University, Japan. His special research interests are in the areas of Buddhist Philosophy, Buddhist Ethics, Logic and Scientific Method, Psychology, Philosophy of Science, and Marxism. He has published English articles concerning Buddhist Philosophy, Indian Philosophy, Research Methodology, and Marxism.

Ms. Nishtha Ahuja (MA) is a research scholar in the Department of East Asian Studies at the University of Delhi, specializing in Japanese language and culture. Currently, Ms. Ahuja is a Visiting Researcher at Aoyama Gakuin University in Japan, where she is working on her dissertation. She holds an M.A. in Japanese from the Department of East Asian Studies, graduating as a Gold Medalist in 2022. In 2021, she was awarded First Prize in the Senior Category of the All India Japanese Language Speech Contest.

Ms. Ahuja has extensive teaching experience, having served as a Guest Lecturer in Japanese Language at the University of Delhi (2021-2023). Additionally, she has been a visiting lecturer at Utkal University, Bhubaneswar (2023), and the Central University of Odisha (2024).

She has received several prestigious honors, including the Mitsubishi Scholarship (2021) and an opportunity to participate in "The 3rd Collaborative Research Workshop for Aspiring Scholars in Japanese Studies" sponsored by the Japan Foundation(2022). Recently, she also attended a five-day Academic Writing Workshop for Research Scholars in Social Sciences, hosted by the Council for Social Development in Hyderabad (November 2023).