(SIJBS)

The Academic Journal of Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy

Sri Lanka International Journal of Buddhist Studies (SIJBS) is the official academic journal of Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA) published annually by its SIBA-DCI Research Centre. The Journal, through the publication of scholarly articles and book reviews, aims at promoting study and research on all facets of Buddhist Studies irrespective of traditions, regions, and periods. Considering the need of the day, the Journal will be a special forum where the scholars in Theravada Buddhism could publish their research findings for wider distribution. With these aims, the journal welcomes scholarly contributions pertaining to Buddhist philosophy, psychology, psychotherapy, counseling, meditation, ethics, epistemology, metaphysics, language, culture, texts, art, architecture, archeology, history, society, religion, education, myths, and rituals.
