

Oh Destiny!

*Oh destiny,
My biggest enemy
I'll never believed in you
You never stayed beside me with my ups and downs*

*And when the whole world fell apart,
You didn't even whisper my name for the heal,
And never guided me on a foreseen path.*

*You dirty soul,
You kept no faith in mine
My empty heart still murmurs
Cursing with your name
But my dear destiny,
I'll never hate you
For the sake of my soul.*
